Dear Sir:

1. Since our discussion of your program covering development of high speed shift registers applicable to high speed systems, a thorough review has been given to this phase of our work.
2. From this, it has been concluded that we are currently engaged in this program area to the maximum of our capabilities. For this reason, we do not plan to initiate additional work in this subject area at this time.
3. Thank you for your interest and for your briefing concerning your high speed shift register programs.

Yours truly,
